The Center for Maghrib Studies in Tunis Presents:

“FIGHTING TO RECLAIM THE CITY IN THE MIDDLE EAST: EMERGING PUBLICS AND THEATRES OF VIOLENCE”

LECTURE BY PROFESSOR CHARLES TRIPP

Charles Tripp is Professor of Politics with reference to the Middle East and a Fellow of the British Academy. His research interests include the nature of autocracy, state and resistance in the Middle East, the politics of Islamic identity and the relationship between art and power. He is currently working on a study of the emergence of the public and the rethinking of republican ideals across the states of North Africa. Together with other colleagues in the department he has been one of the founders of the Centre for Comparative Political Thought at SOAS.
