

Le Centre d'Etudes Maghrébines à Tunis (CEMAT) invites you to a lecture on:

"Smuggling and State-Building: Informal Trade and Development in Ben Guerdane and Oujda"

By Mr. Max Gallien

Department of International Development
The London School of Economics and Political Science

The talk will take place at the CEMAT Villa on Thursday, July 13, 2017, at 10 am.

Max Gallien is a PhD candidate in International Development at the London School of Economics, and has an MPhil in Modern Middle Eastern Studies from the University of Oxford. He specializes in informal economies and the political economy of North Africa. His current project focuses on informal trade networks in the borderlands of Tunisia and Morocco.

The lecture will take place at the CEMAT Villa on Thursday, July 13, 2017 at 10 am.