

Nadia Jelassi is Professor of Fine Art at the Institut Supérieur des Beaux-arts de Tunis, as well as visual artist and curator. She is the former director of the research group Modern Artistic Practices in Tunisia and director of the Doctoral School of Arts and Culture. Nadia is the author of Etats de siège (éditions UR : PAM) and has published multiple articles on artistic practices in Tunisia including Gorgi pluriel (exhibition catalogue, 2018), Aux fondements de l'œuvre de Néjib Belkhadja (exhibition catalogue, 2018), Questionnement de la notion d'authenticité à travers l'ouvrage de Dorra Bouzid : l'Ecole de Tunis (colloquium proceedings on modern Tunisian artistic practices and their relationship to ideologies, éditions UR : PAMT).