The Center for Maghrib Studies in Tunis Presents:

“CONSTITUTION DRAFTING IN THE ARAB WORLD: LESSONS AND LANDMINES”

Lecture by Professor Nathan Brown with comments by Professor Clement M. Henry

Nathan J. Brown, a professor of political science and international affairs at George Washington University, is a distinguished scholar and author who specializes in Islamist movements, Palestinian politics, and Arab law and constitutionalism. Clement M. Henry is the chair of the Department of Political Science at the American University of Cairo and a professor emeritus at the University of Texas at Austin.

[The event will take place at CEMAT on Wednesday, May 23, 2012 at 17:00. A light reception will follow.]