

"Populism, Politics and Popularity: Reflections on the Politics of Today"

February 6, 2020, at 9 AM

Le Centre d'Etudes Maghrébines à Tunis (CEMAT) is pleased to invite you to a roundtable on "Populism, Politics and Popularity: Reflections on the Politics of Today" with Chafik Sarsar, Professor of Law at the University of Law and Political Science of Tunis, Charles Tripp, Professor Emeritus of Politics with reference to the Middle East and North Africa, at SOAS, University of London, and Tarek Kahlaoui, Assistant Professor of History at the Mediterranean School of Business.

The CEMAT roundtable on populism aims to unpack the multiple uses of the term, its discursive and strategic power, its practice, and its socio-historical context. We seek to explore through presentations and discussions how populist strategies cope with the realities of political life, as well as liberal notions of compromise and bargaining.

The roundtable will take place on Thursday, February 6, 2020, at 9 AM, at Le 15 Gallery, Central Tunis.

The roundtable will be in English and Arabic. Simultaneous translation will be provided.
